ECZEMA OF THE SCALP

After 20 Years Suffering Saxo Salve Brings Relief.

"For 20 years I suffered with dry eczema of the scalp during which time I had tried every so-called remedy on the market without benefit. At last I saw Saxo Salve advertised and decided to try it, and after using one tube for the first time in 20 years I am free from that terrible itching and scaly dandruff. I wish every one suffering from eczema or other skin troubles only knew what a wonderful remedy Saxo Salve is."

T. F. Thompson, Hopkinton, Ky.

Saxo Salve always the faithful itching and burning of eczema, destroys the germ and heals the skin. You cannot do better than to try it for eczema, tetter, ringworm or any skin affliction. We give back your money if Saxo Salve does not satisfy you. Broadway Pharmacy, G. G. Frazier, Norwich, Conn.

YANTIC HAPPENINGS

Village Lyceum Entertains at Fine, Old-Fashioned Fourth of July Celebration—Winners in Games and Contests.

The members of the Yantic village lyceum entertained their friends in Independence day. A large grove was prepared for a picnic and was gayly decorated. A hunt was made by all through the woods for prizes hidden among the rocks and ferns. Mrs. John Ayer found the first prize—a metal pin tray. Jason Kingsley found a leather purse. Venie Bogue found a china creamer. Mrs. Seymour Quinley found a belt pin, and Seymour Quinley found an aluminum drinking cup.

Refreshments were then passed and there was a splendid variety, including sandwiches, cake, wafers, ice cream, bananas, oranges and candy. Then all were invited to schoolhouse lot where an egg-rolling contest was held. The contestants being Helen Gleason, Venie Bogue, Louise Manning, Anna Beckman, Edna Bentley and Ethel Ogden. The prize, a gun metal veil pin, was won by Helen Gleason.

The potato race was held with the following contestants in the first: Hermon J. Gibbs, William E. Manning, Jason Kingsley, Frederick Manning. Time 55 seconds, won by Jason Kingsley.

The second race was by August Beckman, Michael Reardon, Roscoe Bentley and Louis Bogue. Time 55 seconds, won by Roscoe Bentley.

As the time was the same, Jason Kingsley and Roscoe Bentley were tied and at the final Roscoe Bentley won the prize, a gold girl stickpin. Reardon got a bad fall but was not hurt.

There was a flag race for ladies, the contestants being Venie Bogue, Edna Bentley, Anna Beckman and Helen Gleason. Time 55 seconds, won by Venie Bogue.

The following ladies entered: Mrs. Seymour Quinley, Mrs. John Ayres, Mrs. Carl Sevin and Mrs. Hermon J. Gibbs and it was won in 55 seconds by Mrs. Carl Sevin. As the girls won by ten seconds Miss Venie Bogue was awarded a pretty cloisonne collar pin.

A 100 yard dash with the following entered: Hermon J. Gibbs, Roscoe Bentley, August Beckman, Michael Reardon, Howard Davis, Louis Bogue, and Jason Kingsley. Time 13-1-2 seconds by Roscoe Bentley, the prize being a bill.

This next, a run and jump with these contestants, Jason Kingsley, Howard Davis, Roscoe Bentley, Frederick Kingsley and Louis Bogue. Time 14 feet 11-3-4 inches. The prize was a pair of cuff links.

Next, a standing broad jump with the following entered: Jason Kingsley, Frederick Manning, Howard Davis, Carl Sevin, Roscoe Bentley and August Beckman. Time 5 feet 3 inches. The prize was a scarfpin.

The three-legged race had the following contestants, Reardon and Davis, Manning and Manning, Kingsley and Bentley, Sevin and Beckman. Reardon and Davis won and received jackknives.

The last and most interesting was a tub race on the canal and was viewed by hundreds. The contestants were Carl Sevin, Howard Davis, Roscoe Bentley and Louis Bogue. There were several spills, but Roscoe Bentley finished first and was awarded a leather bill fold.

Fireworks were later displayed and the Lyceum members provided an entertaining day.

CLICQUOT CLUB satisfies, refreshes, cools. It's delightful, gratifying taste comes with the first sip from the first glassful. It lacks that harsh, throat-burning quality common to other ginger ales.

CLICQUOT CLUB GINGER ALE

In spite of its reasonable cost—about five cents per glassful when bought from the grocer—"Clicquot Club" contains the best of everything. The best quality pure, granulated cane sugar. Choice ginger from which the resin is removed, making "Clicquot Club" mildly laxative instead of constipating. Oils of limes and lemons pressed directly from these fruits. Crystal-pure water from Clicquot Springs. The reasonable price of "Clicquot Club" is possible solely because of the great demand for it.

OTHER CLICQUOT CLUB BEVERAGES: Sarsaparilla, Birch Beer, Root Beer, Lemon Sour, Orange Phosphate.

Sold by the better class grocers by the case, dozen or bottle. At a price amounting to about 5 cents per glassful.
